

On Friday 25 May please bring your child to school in superhero fancy dress and let them be a hero for Children's Hospice Week!

We will be raising money for Together for Short Lives to help them continue their vital work supporting children's hospices and the seriously ill children and their families that use them.

Please bring a donation for our collection box.

On Friday 25 May please bring your child to school in superhero fancy dress and let them be a hero for Children's Hospice Week!

We will be raising money for Together for Short Lives to help them continue their vital work supporting children's hospices and the seriously ill children and their families that use them.

Please bring a donation for our collection box.

On Friday 25 May please bring your child to school in superhero fancy dress and let them be a hero for Children's Hospice Week!

We will be raising money for Together for Short Lives to help them continue their vital work supporting children's hospices and the seriously ill children and their families that use them.

Please bring a donation for our collection box.